Jim "Mattress Mack" McIngvale
*A businessman; Philanthropist &
The Owner of Gallery Furniture*

Born in Mississippi, Jim "Mattress Mack" McIngvale was a college football player at the University of Texas and the University of North Texas. A few years later in 1981, he founded Gallery Furniture with $5,000 and a red pickup truck at an abandoned model home park in Houston. It's now the 52nd-largest furniture store in the country.

Mac is famous for his TV commercials, his massive promotions of refunding purchases if the Astros win the World Series, and most impressively, his significant philanthropic achievements. His fundraisers have attracted a former President and First Lady to his store for the Salvation Army, revitalizing 130 USO centers around the world, to sheltering Houston families after Hurricane Harvey.
